

Paddeln

oder

Das Lachen in den Wäldern

Kai Schreiber

Caroline Hårdter

Die Kanu-Reise

01.09. - 11.09. 2002

... provide basic supplies for logging camps operated by McLachlin Bros. during the early 1900s.

Peregrine Falcons, now gravely threatened by pesticides, last nested on this cliff in 1962.

Possible low water problems Bluejay Lake to Vanishing Pond and along Potter Creek! Check before trip.

Sixteen km by stage from Cache Lake. Camp Minessing was a "wilderness resort" operated by the Grand Trunk and C.N.R. between 1913 and 1937.

Came to Tom Thomson, famous Algonquin artist

